The Words of Eternal Life - 36

"Why do you see the speck that is in your brother's eye, but do not notice the log that is in your own eye? Or, how can you say to your brother, 'Let me take the speck out of your eye;' when there is the log in your own eye? You hypocrite, first take the log out of your own eye, and then you will see clearly to take the speck out of your brother's eye."
(Mt. 7:3-5)

Meditations . . .

“He met a Jew named Aquila, . . . who had recently come from Italy with his wife Priscilla.” (Acts 18:2)

With all of its sermons, conversions, miracles, and travels, the Book of Acts gives us a bird’s-eye view of the early Church. But it doesn’t give us the full stories of all the heroes and heroines of that first generation of Christians who were instrumental in building the Church. As John said about his Gospel, “There wouldn’t be enough books in the entire world” to write down all those stories (21:25)!
Think about Barnabas. He was instrumental in starting Paul on his apostolic career, and he even journeyed with him for a time (Acts 9:27; 13:1-3). But we don’t hear much more about him after that point.
Think, too, about Priscilla and Aquila, whom we meet in today’s first reading. This is what we know: they had recently arrived in Corinth because the emperor Claudius had expelled all the Jews from Rome. They welcomed Paul into their home and worked beside him during his stay. Then they met Apollos, realized he was not teaching the full gospel, and invited him into their home to teach him more fully. They also opened their home to church services and constantly nurtured new believers in the Lord (1 Corinthians 16:19). Later, we learn that Priscilla and Aquila traveled with Paul, and on at least one occasion risked their lives for him (Romans 16:3-4).
Finally, think of all the people whose names are listed at the end of many of Paul’s letters—people like Epaenetus, Mary, Andronicus, Junias, Ampliatus, Urbanus, Stachys, Apelles, Aristobulus, Herodion, and Narcissus (Romans 16:3-11). So many names! So many people! And so many stories that are unknown to us! But here’s the most important point: each one of them was essential to the growth of the Church.
The same is true for you! There is no such thing as non-essential support staff in the kingdom of God. There are no second-tier builders of the Church—at least not in God’s eyes. You can make a real difference in the world as you embrace the calling God has for you. Whether you are in the spotlight or working “behind the scenes,” know that the Lord sees your faithfulness—and he rejoices in you!

“Holy Spirit, thank you for all the heroes of the faith! And thank you for calling me to be a hero, too.”

CONFIRMATION 2025:

This year we will have our Confirmandi receive the Sacrament of Confirmation on Wednesday, June 11, 2025, at 6:00 p.m. at Our Lady of Mount Carmel Church, in Winters. Please pray for these students who have stayed faithful to our Catholic Faith, and will enter into another phase of young adulthood. God bless them, always!

VOLUNTEERS NEEDED:

You may have noticed that there is a used arm chair and a mattress that have been outside our Parish Hall for several weeks. If someone would like to take them, please feel free to do so. A HEAVENLY DESTINY (Part IV)

“We Are Sealed With a Glorious Promise”

By: Joe Difato

Keeping the Seal. So yes, we have been sealed. Yes, we have an indelible mark setting us apart as Christ’s own. But it’s up to us, with the help of the Spirit, to protect that seal and to let Jesus’ claim on our lives direct how we live. This is why the Catechism says, “The faithful Christian who has ‘kept the seal’ until the end, remaining faithful to the demands of his Baptism, will be able to depart this life ‘with the sign of faith,’ with his baptismal faith, in expectation of the blessed vision of God . . . and in the hope of resurrection” (1274).
Here’s how St. Paul described his efforts at “keeping the seal” and “remaining faithful” to his Baptism. Toward the end of his life, he wrote, “I have competed well; I have finished the race; I have kept the faith. From now on the crown of righteousness awaits me, which the Lord, the just judge, will award to me on that day” (2 Timothy 4:7-8). (To be continued)
