"Enter by the narrow gate; for the gate is wide and the way is easy, that leads to destruction, and those who enter by it are many. For the gate is narrow and the way is hard, that leads to life, and those who find it are few." (Mt. 7:13-14)

Meditations . . .

"The Spirit of truth . . . will guide you to all truth." (John 16:13)

It's no coincidence that we celebrate Trinity Sunday on the Sunday after Pentecost. The mystery of the Holy Trinity is so deep that we need the Holy Spirit, the "Spirit of truth" (John 16:13), to help us understand it. And even more important, it's only through the Spirit, who was poured out on Pentecost, that we can enter into an everdeepening relationship with our awesome triune God!

It's the Spirit who moves us to pray and worship God. He both puts that desire in our hearts and teaches us to pray. He opens our ears so that we can hear God speaking to us, and he opens our hearts so that we can come to know the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit in a personal way.

The Spirit also opens up the Scriptures for us, revealing to us who God is. He illuminates our minds through God's word and helps us to grasp his sweeping plan of salvation. He makes real to us God's constant desire to Perhaps most amazing, it's the Spirit who pours "the love of God . . . into our hearts" (Romans 5:5). We know intellectually that God is love (1 John 4:8), but the Spirit helps us experience the immensity of that love. He shows us that we are the apple of God's eye, beloved from before time began. He shows us the love that moved the Father to give us his Son, so that we might live with him forever.

Jesus reassured his disciples that the Spirit "will speak what he hears" (John 16:13). On this special feast, let the Spirit speak a word of reassurance to you about our mysterious, awe-inspiring God. You will never fully grasp the mystery of the Trinity, but you can be grasped by it. You can know God and the love he is pouring out into your heart—today!

> "Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, I will praise you forever!"

A HEAVENLY DESTINY (Final)

"We Are Sealed With a Glorious Promise" By: Joe Difato

I know heaven will be great, but a part of me has some fears about dying and what that will be like. I know my faith is weak. But these glimpses give me a deeper desire for heaven. They help me live that heavenly life partially and imperfectly, of course—even now, before Jesus comes again.

Don't Forget Your Destiny! Our minds can go in a million different directions every day. We can become so busy and preoccupied that we lose sight of Jesus. We can become so weighed down by our responsibilities that we lose sight of the fact that we have been sealed by the Holy Spirit.

So let's proclaim, "This Lent, I want to treasure the seal that the Holy Spirit has stamped on my soul—the down payment for heaven. I want to remember my destiny so that I will do everything I can to protect this seal." Brothers and sisters, we have a wonderful life awaiting us with the Lord. Let's never lose sight of our heavenly home!
