Meditations . . .
Oh, that today you would hear his voice:
“Harden not your hearts.” (Psalm 95:7-8)

Have you ever tried to mold a pot out of clay? Once it dries, clay is nearly impossible to work with. If you let it harden, you can’t reshape it. Just as a potter needs soft clay, so our Lord needs soft hearts that he can shape into vessels of his grace and power.

Today the psalmist calls God’s people to “kneel before the Lord who made us” (Psalm 95:6). Through his word, he wants to form his people into a beautiful dwelling for his Spirit. That’s why he speaks through his prophets like Moses and Ezekiel, the “watchman” in our first reading (Ezekiel 33:7). He forms us through the Church and through our brothers and sisters in Christ. And he molds us through the voice of his Spirit in our hearts. That’s why it’s important to heed the psalmist and “harden not your hearts” (95:8)!

The problem is that sin tends to harden our hearts. It makes us less pliable and less responsive to God and limits his ability to mold and shape us. So he gave us his Holy Spirit to convict us of sin, so that we would turn back to him (John 16:8). The Holy Spirit softens our hearts and fills us with hope that we can change.

What does a pliable heart, open to the Spirit, look like? Above all, it is humble before God and wants to please him by becoming his instrument in the world. A pliable heart recognizes the destructive power of sin and longs to repent and be set free. A pliable heart is peaceful because it receives God’s love and trusts that God will never hurt or abandon it.

Let’s cooperate with the Holy Spirit today. Imagine that you are a piece of clay being shaped by God’s loving hands. Picture him molding you; let him show you any rough spots that need extra attention. Yield to him, and let him smooth them out. You—and everyone around you—will be amazed at what God can do in you.

“Lord Jesus, give me a soft, pliable heart. Mold me into who you created me to be.”

ACCORDING TO GOD’S WILL

(Part 5)

Mary: Hidden and Humble before the Lord

Mary was beginning to understand that God’s plans for her were far beyond anything she could have imagined or anticipated: “Behold, from now on will all ages call me blessed. The Mighty One has done great things for me, and holy is his name” (Luke 1:48-49). Mary didn’t need to be recognized or acknowledged, but she also knew how blessed she would be in bringing the promised Messiah to Israel. Having witnessed Roman oppression since her earliest days, Mary still trusted that God had not forgotten his people. And now she learned that she was to be an integral part in God’s plan to deliver them.

God Is in Charge. For centuries, brutal and arrogant rulers like King Herod in nearby Jerusalem and the Emperor Caesar in faraway Rome had reigned over Israel. They had ruthlessly oppressed God’s people and enriched themselves at their expense. Mary’s response to the angel and her words in the Magnificat testify not only to God’s love of humility but also to his rejection of the proud: “He has . . . dispersed the arrogant of mind and heart. He has lifted up the lowly” (Luke 1:51-52).

THANK YOU, AGAIN!
We thank you for your generous donations to the College & University Campus Ministry Collection taken up this past weekend. May God continue to bless you for all you do!
CCD TEACHERS & AIDES:
Even though we have already started our 2026-2027 classes, we are seeking volunteers to help with teaching our parish’s young children as either a teacher or an aide. This is a ministry that brings great reward to both our parish and to our community. You may contact Margie Mitchell, CRE at (325) 660-5512 for more information.

SUNDAY BULLETIN ADS:
Our Sunday Bulletin Ad page is finally full! However, there are still some Ad owners who have not informed us if they wish to continue, edit or delete their ad(s) for this six month cycle. If you choose to continue, please contact the Parish Office to renew your Ad. We thank you for your patronage. God bless you!
NOTE: A gentle reminder to all who have not yet paid for this cycle of Ad publication. please take care of this matter as soon as possible. Thank you!
