Meditations . . .

*“I have come to believe that you are the Christ.”
 (John 11:27)*

Martha’s faith was being tested. Surely she thought that once she sent word to Jesus that Lazarus was sick, he would come quickly to heal him. And yet John tells us that although Jesus “loved Martha and her sister and Lazarus,” he “remained for two days in the place where he was” (John 11:5, 6). How painful it must have been for Martha to watch helplessly as her brother died! How she must have wondered why Jesus hadn’t come sooner!

When Jesus does finally show up, Martha doesn’t hide her disappointment. If he had arrived in time, she tells him, “my brother would not have died” (John 11:21). Yet her faith remains firmly intact: “Even now I know that whatever you ask of God, God will give you” (11:22). And when Jesus tells her that her brother will rise, she proclaims her belief “in the resurrection on the last day” (11:24). Martha must have been overjoyed when Jesus called Lazarus out of the tomb!

Martha’s faith even in disappointment can be an inspiration for us, especially when we have “sent word” to Jesus, but he seems to be absent (John 11:3). Today’s Gospel shows us that when the Lord’s ways are confusing, he always has us on his heart and mind. He hears our prayers and has a plan for our lives even when we can’t envision it.

Martha came to believe that Jesus had the power to raise the dead and that his plans were higher than hers. Even though he hadn’t healed her brother, she still trusted him. So when you are in a place of waiting or disappointment, you can bring your pain to Jesus. You can allow him to reassure you that he is your loving Savior. He will strengthen your faith and hope. He will help you see his goodness in this life and, even more, in the life to come.

“Always remember that Jesus hears your prayers. He will never, ever forsake you.”

URGENT! PARISH REGISTRATION UPDATE (2026):

We received a call from the Diocese, recently, asking us to turn in our list of parishioners. We explained that we were almost finished with the updating of our registrations. I cannot express how important this information is. Again, we are grateful to those who filled out an updated Registration recently. But, we still need to continue reaching out to those who may not be attending Mass regularly. Everyone must be included in our updated 2026 Directory. We need every family or individual to fill out a current registration form, as soon as possible - REGARDLESS, if you have not had any changes in the last few years. We need your current information. There are registration forms still located in the Vestibule. Please fill one out to up-date your information - please do not leave any blanks. If you cannot fill out each line, simply write “None” on that line. We thank you for your cooperation.

“LOVE ONE ANOTHER, AS I HAVE LOVED YOU.” (John:34)

Part V [Excerpt from The Word Among Us]

Jim and Monica Murphy were devoted parents.

God Calls His Children as One. Consider the Trinity—how the Father and the Son love one another so much that they pour out their whole being to one another. This outpouring of love is the Person of the Holy Spirit—fully God. The Father, Son, and Spirit are perfectly united in love. They don’t merely agree with one another; they are one with each other.

It is this love that brought forth creation, calling humanity to taste God’s love and be united in the Trinity. God created all of us in his own image and likeness. Every man and woman ever created is a child of the one Father, capable of knowing him intimately (Jeremiah 31:3). As sons and daughters of the Father, we can be filled with his life, living with each other as brothers and sisters in love and harmony. Imagine a world in which there is no hatred, no racism, no wars, no injustice. This is God’s grand plan and desire for us.

Sin’s entrance appeared to jeopardize this perfect plan. Because we rejected God’s will, human history became filled with division and bitterness, mistrust, and hatred. Yet God did not abandon his desires for us. Ever faithful to his beloved children, he has worked constantly throughout history, seeking to restore us to himself and to one another.
