Meditations . . .

“How much more . . .”
(Romans 5:9)

This passage can seem so complex that we might feel tempted to gloss over it. But don't! Spend a little time with it, and you'll see that it is filled with words of great encouragement and promise.

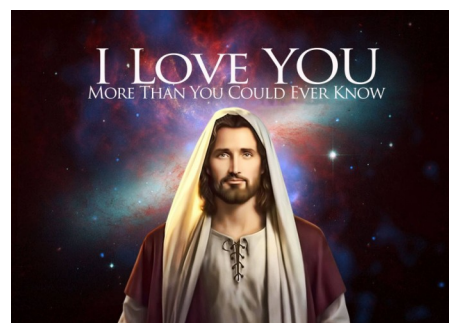

First, Paul explains that Jesus offered himself up for us “while we were still helpless” (Romans 5:6). He admits that we were trapped in sin and unable to pull ourselves out of it. If anything, we kept digging ourselves into a deeper hole. But, Paul proclaims, that's what makes Jesus' sacrifice so astounding. He gave his life for me when I was in such a sorry state!

Paul says, in fact, that this is how God “proves” how much he loves us: “While we were still sinners Christ died for us” (Romans 5:8). Jesus' cross forever stands as the evidence that no matter how low we may fall, no matter how selfish and prideful we may be, God still loves us. He still wants to rescue us and restore us to himself.

Having explained how God proves his love for us, Paul goes on to describe the confidence this love can give us. And he does it by stacking one rhetorical question on top of another: if Jesus has rescued us by his death, how much more will he protect us from “the wrath” that sin produces in the world (Romans 5:9)? How much more “will we be saved” from every evil in this world (5:10)? How much more indeed! There's no limit to his love.

So every time you catch yourself wondering whether you are “good enough” for Jesus to love you, remember those three words: how much more! Remember the cross. Remember the love that moved him to give himself up to death—for you. Gaze upon the cross and let Jesus tell you how valuable and how precious you are to him. Then stand tall and joyfully “boast” to yourself about the love that God has for you. (Romans 5:11). Rejoice in the love that redeems and reconciles and saves and heals. The love that does so much more.

“Jesus, I am amazed by your love for me!”

BULLETIN ANNOUNCEMENTS:

It has always been our practice to publish parish events in the Sunday Bulletin, given enough time to do so. We remind our parishioners that ALL parish events should be announced so everyone can be informed—not just those immediately affected. As such, we are reminded that events, special notifications, etc. should be brought (in writing please, or email) to the Parish Office by Wednesday of each week by the group or individual in charge of said event. This gives enough time for these notifications to be published in time. We are also reminded that these events should be approved by the Pastor, BEFORE, they are announced or published—not at the last minute. Take the time to speak with Fr. Thomas when you wish something to be announced or published—and give him sufficient time to review your request or notification. Once Fr. Thomas approves your request, please make certain that you give the Parish Office this information for publication. We thank you for your full cooperation.
